1. The scheduled date for the start of the turbine operation at Trattendorf¹ was met only by using every available pair of hands. The turbine ran on 17 December for exactly twenty-five minutes. The entire structure was built on a temporary basis and will have to be entirely reconstructed for the actual permanent operation of the turbine, which is expected to start in late February 1955.
2. The first running of the turbine was filmed by representatives of DEFA.
